Clarence Sansom's Dress Code

What Not to Wear … Sansom Style!
Did you know?

- Sansom is a place of business—the business of learning.
- Inappropriate clothing can distract us from the business of teaching and learning.
- Setting expectations in school helps prepare students for real-world expectations.
- The CBE gives the school the authority to send any student with unsuitable appearance home to change.

A Rule of Thumb

- If you have to continually adjust your clothing to make it fit our dress code, then you shouldn’t be wearing it!
While We’re At It…
Not while moving in the halls or in an emergency

Thank You

- Our attire can demonstrate pride in ourselves and our school and shows respect for the “business of learning”—the reason we are here!
- Way to Go, Scorpions!
