Focus and Learning Opportunities

To all NSS students, there are only 23 days of classes remaining in this school year. Many students are working hard to finish classes after a busy sport season. Please give everyone opportunity to use this critical time in the year by remaining focused, travelling quietly between classes and ensuring the student center is a productive and focused work area.

Lost & Found

An adaptor for an iPhone was found in Mr. Stewart's room at the end of February. Please see the office if you have lost one in school.

Grads

REMINDER to all grads - please check the spelling of your name for the grad certificates, either during the meeting Wednesday or sometime during the week. The list is taped to the countertop at the front desk. Please CHECK OFF YOUR NAME IF CORRECT or write it how you would like it spelled etc.

Indigenous Oral Sharing Day in TA today

Today, students in Humanities classes will have the opportunity to share their work/creations with their TA groups. These students have created a variety of projects to showcase their understandings (or reflections) of indigenous ways of knowing, legacies of colonization/imperialism, and/or the value of reconciliation. Projects are varied; they may be visual pieces (with written rationales), mini-documentaries, personal response creative writing pieces, song/rap performances, etc. – get ready to be entertained!!!

Math Contests results

Thank you to all the students who participated in the University of Waterloo Galois and Hypatia contests. Congratulations to Abby McCaig and Elijah Thompson who will receive medals for their top achievements on the Hypatia (grade 11) contest.

Donate to the Women In Need Society

On March 23rd, 2018, the Women in Need Society had to temporarily close their Resources Centre due to the financial crisis. It is a non-profit organization that helps women who are unable to provide for themselves and their families, often escaping unsafe situations at home. From now until May 28th, there will be a donation box at the front desk, as well as a bin in the student area where you can donate gently used clothing, and sheets. You can also donate unused socks, as well as bottles of shampoo, toothpaste and soap. A complete list of what can be donated will be posted above the bins.
