Why Pink Shirts? Pink Shirt Day – February 28th

This 28th of February, be sure to wear your pink shirt for NSS' Pink Shirt Day. Support and spread awareness of Pink Shirt Day, to stop bullying in all forms, and let your voice be heard.

In 2007, a group of grade 9 students organized a "Pink Shirt Day" to stand up for a fellow student who was bullied for wearing a pink shirt. They took a stand against his harassment by handing out pink shirts for boys to wear, strength in numbers ceased all bullying as they were not heard from again. To read more about Pink Shirt Day, you can visit their website at: <https://www.pinkshirtday.ca>

PTC Training times:

Students are reminded of the training times for the PTC.

Monday-Friday from 6:00 am - 8:15 AM.

There is no training in the PTC after school. If students wish to train after school the BNTC is available from 3:00 pm - 8:00 pm.

We have made arrangements for students to train in the PTC during holidays with different hours but those times are only for holidays. Please be sure to check with Mr. Weipert, Mr. Stewart or Mr. Jewan if you are unsure of the training times.
